BILL ANALYSIS

Background information:

The State Building Commission is presently composed of the Governor, the Attorney General, and the Chairman of the Board of Control. None of these members really have the time to get into the details involved, thus Gov. Smith and the others have recommended that a three-man appointed commission could function better.

Purpose of the Resolution:

H.J.R. 15 reconstitutes the State Building Commission as a three-member appointive commission.

Section by section analysis:

Section 1: Amends Art. III, Sec. 51-b providing for membership as explained above and setting the terms of office.

Section 2: Submits this to a vote in November 1969.

Summary of Committee action:

HJR 15 was reported back to the House with the recommendation that it do pass, as amended, and be printed.

Committee Amend. #1: changes ballot date from 1969 to 1970.
